Generaciones Malbec 2012

The 2012 vintage of Chaiken Vineyards' Generaciones Malbec is 100% Malbec.

Harvest:

All grapes were picked in April 2012 from vines planted in our own vineyard in 2007. Yields were less than 2 tons per acre.

Fermentation:

The Malbec underwent 6 days of cold maceration at 11.3°C. Yeast and nutrients were then added and the stainless steel tanks were allowed to warm to encourage fermentation. The wines fermented dry in 14 days and were racked into 67% new and 33% second-use French oak barrels. Final alcohol content is 14.3%.

Barrel Age, Blending, and Bottling:

After 8 months of barrel age, the wine was blended in stainless steel tanks and returned to the barrel for an additional 10 months of barrel age. The wine was bottled in December 2013 and arrived in the U.S. in June 2014.

Tasting Notes:

Rich, powerful, fruit forward Malbec showing great body with hints of dark fruit, blackberry, raspberry and sweet tobacco. The wine shows a full mid-palate followed by a lasting finish. Tannins are showing now but will soften with decanting and bottle age. Aging potential is 7-9 years. Only 900 bottles made.

More than 100 years ago my grandparents came to America to realize their dream of freedom, opportunity, and a better life for their children. One grandfather, Israel, became a carpenter, while the other, Sam, founded his own business delivering soda and seltzer to residents of New York City.

My father, Raymond, continued in the delivery business working six days per week, while my mother, Estelle, worked as a bookkeeper, a position she held for more than 50 years. To honor my parents and grandparents, I started Chaiken Vineyards, a tribute to the sacrifice they made to offer me a better life.

More than 100 years ago my grandparents came to America to realize their dream of freedom, opportunity, and a better life for their children. One grandfather, Israel, became a carpenter, while the other, Sam, founded his own business delivering soda and seltzer to residents of a major American city. My father, Raymond, continued in the delivery business working six days per week, while my mother, Estelle, worked as a bookkeeper, a position she held for more than 50 years. To honor my parents and grandparents, I named this wine Generaciones, a tribute to the sacrifice they made to offer me a better life.
